Charity Bookkeeper of the Year

The LUCA for Charity Bookkeeper of the Year will be awarded to the student or member who, in the opinion of ICB, can demonstrate that he or she upholds the standards and ideals of ICB and can show that he or she deserves to be awarded the title 'Charity Bookkeeper of the Year'. Whilst there are no specific criteria for what constitutes a Charity Bookkeeper of the Year, it is expected that the nominee will have achieved significant success and will have made an outstanding contribution to his or her charity of choice. It might also be that he or she is able to demonstrate a contribution to an ICB branch or region, or that he or she has undertaken activities outside the bookkeeping which have assisted the charity or the wider community.

Criteria

1. Nominations for the Charity Bookkeeper of the Year LUCA Award may be submitted by the nominee themselves, an employer or by another person associated with the nominee who believes that he or she is worthy of the title 'Charity Bookkeeper of the Year'.
2. Previous winners or nominees are eligible to enter
3. The nominee must have been an ICB student or member for not less than twelve months immediately preceding the LUCA Awards ceremony.
4. Nominations should take the form of a letter detailing why the bookkeeper deserves to be awarded the LUCA for Charity Bookkeeper of the Year.
5. The nomination should be submitted to ICB via email to luca@icbglobal.org. The email subject line must include "Charity Bookkeeper of the Year nomination", together with the name of the bookkeeper being nominated.
6. The letter of nomination must include the following basic information:
 - The name of the bookkeeper being nominated
 - Name of the charity
 - Name of the person submitting the nomination
 - Period of employment
 - Position(s) held
7. In light of the charitable nature of the work undertaken, the standard application fee for a LUCA nomination is waived. This is only applicable to this category.
8. Additional documentation, such as letters from any person or persons willing to support the nomination, for example from fellow employees, clients, accountants etc., are encouraged. These can be attached to the original nomination or emailed separately. If emailed separately the subject line must include the name of the bookkeeper being nominated and must state that it is supporting documentation.
9. ICB will acknowledge receipt of each nomination and separate supporting information. ICB accepts no responsibility for any nomination or supporting information which is sent but is not received.
10. All nominations and supporting documentation must be received by ICB not later than midnight on Monday 14th November 2016. The date and time recorded on the ICB's inbox will be taken as the date and time received and late entries will not be accepted.
11. Nominees who are shortlisted will receive 2 tickets to the LUCA Awards event taking place on Tuesday 29th November at the Mansion House in London (value £480). Nominees will be expected to attend the awards ceremony.
12. ICB's decision will be final and no correspondence will be entered into.
